GILA RIVER INDIAN COMMUNITY HEALING GARDEN

Mercy Gilbert Medical Center will soon introduce the Gila River Indian Community Healing Garden to our neighborhood. This garden will be a place where patients and their loved ones, employees, and friends are invited and encouraged to find solace, serenity, and reprieve. The garden is the result of a friendship between Mercy Gilbert Medical Center and the Gila River Indian Community – two entities with a shared philosophy of surrounding patients, families, and our neighbors with an atmosphere of healing for the body, mind, and spirit.

The Healing Garden features include an amphitheater, Tree of Life, a fountain, benches, and artwork – all working in harmony to provide a place of serenity.

PAUSE, REFLECT, HEAL

The Gila River Indian Community Healing Garden will be a ceremonial healing area which strengthens the restoring nature at Mercy Gilbert Medical Center. Intertwined with pathways, gardens, fountains, benches, and artwork, the garden represents life at every stage. Through the use of water, sunlight and natural foliage the garden provides a place of peace and contemplation. It will be a place to pause, reflect, and heal.

IT'S ABOUT GROWTH

Since we opened our doors in June 2006, Mercy Gilbert Medical Center has grown in many ways. We have doubled the number of patients we can accommodate and have added much-needed services for our patients.

None of this would have been possible without the generous support of our neighbors and friends here in the East Valley.

As we look forward to the future, we see continued growth, and we invite you to be a part of it.

BECOME PART OF THE HEALING

Mercy Gilbert Medical Center and Gila River Indian Community look to our friends to help us transform this space into a garden for physical and mental well-being. The Gila River Indian Community Healing Garden represents life at every stage as reflected through use of water, sunlight and natural foliage.

Your gift will help Mercy Gilbert Medical Center provide a peaceful place for those who are recuperating as well as a place that brings a quiet comfort to those who are visiting.

One of the focal points of the Gila River Indian Community Healing Garden will be the Tree of Life, a 30-foot steel tree created by Arizona native Joe Tyler.
